Business Conduct Guidelines

I. Integrity

All board members, officers, employees, and volunteers of the Community Foundation of Western Nevada (“The Foundation”) shall act with honesty, integrity, and openness in all of their dealings as representatives of the Foundation. The Foundation shall maintain a working environment that values integrity, fairness, and respect.

II. Our Mission

Code of Ethics and Business Conduct Policy – Revised December 2019
Our mission is to strengthen our community through philanthropy and leadership by connecting people who care with causes that matter.

How we do our work is as important as what we do

- We are committed to valuable service to our community. We foster innovation, collaboration and imagination.

- We are an engaged community leader and ally. We seek to develop and influence philanthropic and community leaders.

- We are responsible stewards of the resources entrusted to us. We operate with integrity, transparency and credibility.

- We value inclusiveness, diversity and equity. Our organization is characterized by a generous and caring spirit.

- We are a results-oriented organization committed to excellence.

The Community Foundation of Western Nevada is dedicated to benefiting the citizens and communities throughout the state of Nevada, and beyond, per requests from our donors.

III. Law and Ethics

The Foundation shall comply with all applicable federal, state, and local laws and regulations and shall seek the advice of counsel when necessary or appropriate. Compliance with the law, however, is the minimum standard of expected behavior. The Foundation shall also adhere to the highest ethical standards. All resolutions and other legal actions by the Board of Trustees shall satisfy two requirements: (1) they shall be legally permissible, and (2) they shall also reflect the highest ethical standards as codified within this Code of Ethics document.

IV. Diversity

The Foundation shall promote diversity and inclusiveness in its Board of Trustees, Advisory Board, management team, staff and volunteers.

V. Evaluation

The Foundation is committed to continuously improve its programs and its organizational quality. The Foundation shall periodically review its programs and incorporate lessons learned. The Foundation shall be responsive to new developments that may impact its programs and shall be responsive to the interests of its constituents.

VI. Fundraising

The Foundation shall comply with the charitable organization requirements of the State of Nevada. The Foundation shall respect the privacy concerns of individual donors and shall follow the donor intent in making disbursements. The Foundation shall disclose important and relevant information to potential donors. In raising funds from the public, the Foundation shall:

a. inform donors of the mission of the Foundation, and how their financial support will be used as part of its mission;

b. inform donors of the identity of those serving on the Foundation’s board;

c. disclose the Foundation’s most recent financial reports;

d. represent that contributions will be used for the purposes for which they were given;

e. provide appropriate acknowledgement and recognition of contributions;

f. treat information about donations with respect and with confidentiality to the extent requested and/or provided by law; and

g. encourage donors to ask questions when making a donation, and provide prompt, truthful and forthright answers.

VII. Transparency

a. The Foundation shall provide comprehensive and timely information to the public, the media, and all stakeholders and shall be responsive in a timely manner to reasonable requests for information. All information about the Foundation shall fully and honestly reflect its policies and practices. All financial and program reports shall be complete and accurate in all material respects.
